JUVENILE HOUSEBREAKERS AT CARDIFF.—Three lads named Bryant, Donovan, and Kity were charged at Cardiff with breaking into the house of Mr. Phillips, a grocer, living at 20, North William-street. Complainant said that on Wednesday morning, about a quarter to three o'clock, he was awakened by a policeman to find his shop broken into. He made an examination, and found he had lost three hams, one cheese, several tins of salmon, some bread, and a quantity of tobacco. Prisoners were apprehended on Wednesday morning, at half-past nine, and denied the charge. His worship adjourned the case till Monday next.

WINDOW BREAKING AT NEWPORT.—Honora Morgan, from the Workhouse, was charged at Newport with being drunk, wilfully breaking a window in the house of Richard Joshua, and assaulting his wife. Police-Constable Crane and Mrs. Joshua gave evidence proving the occurrence, which took place on Monday. Prisoner admitted being under the influence of drink, but appeared to deny the other allegations made against her. Sentenced to 21 days' imprisonment.—Ann Sullivan was summoned for breaking the window of Susannah Stockwell, and defendant was fined 10s.—Emma Morgan was summoned for wilfully breaking the window of Emily Williams, in Barnardtown, and defendant was ordered to pay the damage.

HORSE STEALING AT ABERGAVENNY.—John Williams, alias Pendry, was sentenced to six months' hard labour at Abergavenny for stealing a mare, the property of Mr. David Watkins, Lodge Farm, on the 4th ult.

BREAKING TELEGRAPH INSULATORS AT SWANSEA.—Wm. Berry, Christian Cole, and Arthur B. Richards, youths, were charged at Swansea with wilfully breaking insulators on telegraph posts. Mr. Glascodine prosecuted on behalf of the Post-office authorities, and Mr. Jellicoe defended Berry. Mr. Glascodine stated that the insulators had been renewed a few days before all along the road on which the defendants were seen throwing stones.

COLLIERY ACTION AT PONTYPRIDD.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

At Pontypridd Police-court on Wednesday morning the Stipendiary (Mr. J. Ignatius Williams) gave his decision in the action which had been heard before him on the previous Wednesday, in which John Hill Pendry and William Pendry, brothers and colliers, claimed £7 4s. each from Messrs. Davis and Sons, proprietors of the Ferndale Collieries, for alleged wrongful dismissal.—The Stipendiary held that the dismissal of the plaintiffs was not justified, and he gave judgment for £5 and costs to each plaintiff, expressing regret that the case was brought before his tribunal and not placed before the sliding-scale committee.

COUNTY COURT.—This court was held on Wednesday, before Judge Terrell. The undefended cases were disposed of by the registrar (Mr. H. Lloyd) before his Honour took his seat at eleven o'clock. Ninety summonses were issued, and there were eight adjourned cases.—Richard Venables v. Francis Jones: This was an action brought to recover the sum of £13 5s. 6d. for damages alleged to have been done to plaintiff's pony and trap, &c., through the negligence of the defendant whilst driving from Neyland to Milford. Mr. W. V. James, solicitor, of Haverfordwest, appeared for the plaintiff; and Mr. W. B. Rowlands (instructed by Mr. J. Price, solicitor,) for the defendant. His Honour gave judgment for the plaintiff for £1.—Henry Davies v. Rowland Penry, Henry Penry, and Jas. Harries. This action was brought to recover £50 for the alleged unlawful detention of certain cattle, the property of the plaintiff. Mr. W. V. James, solicitor, was for the plaintiff; and Mr. W. B. LARCENY.—At the petty sessions on Wednesday (before the Rev. J. Farquhar and Mr. J. Humfray), Mary Francis was placed in the dock, charged with stealing a watch, value 50s, and a silver lace hatband, the property of Mr. John Thomas Penry Jones, of Coldbrook. From the evidence, it appeared the prisoner had been employed as servant to the prosecutor, but not being suitable, she was under notice to leave on May 7th. On the Sunday after she left the complainant missed his watch, which was kept on the mantelpiece in the bedroom, and he gave information to the police. He also obtained a search warrant, and found the hatband in the prisoner's box. The prisoner said when apprehended that she did not know anything about the watch, but afterwards made a statement that she had thrown it into a pond near complainant's house. A search was, however, made in the pond, but the watch was not found. Committed for two months with hard labour.

who told her that above Thomas Ferrier was named after his grandfather.

Rowland Penry, one of the tenants of the Ferrier estate, stated that he took his farm from Mr. Richard Ferrier, and that at the time he negotiated for it he asked him whether he was a Welshman. He told him he was, and he then said, referring to the Cardiganshire Ferriers, that he would probably have a Welsh landlord before long, as he had relations in the upper part of the country.

Mary Ann Ferrier, wife of Evan Ferrier, stated that she was well acquainted with the Thomas Ferrier who lived at St. Dogmael's. He had often talked to her about his relations and had told her that they came from Pembrokeshire. He had also spoken of his grandfather, Thomas Ferrier, stating that he was named after him. He had told her that her grandfather married a person named "Bowden" or "Cowden" (she could not remember which) at Pembroke, and he had given her a Latin Testament that had belonged to his grandfather, and contained three entries of the name "Thomas Ferrier, his book; 1763."

By Mr. Bowen: Thomas Ferrier, of St. Dogmael's, lived to be a very old man, and when he died "100 years of age" was inscribed on his coffin. He died about seven years ago.

Evan Ferrier stated that he was acquainted with his great uncle, Thomas Ferrier, of St. Dogmael's, and DEATHS.

DIED—on Monday morning last, after a tedious confinement with the consumption, Mrs. Bennett, aged 36 years, consort of Mr. Thos. Bennett, merchant of this town. Mrs. Bennett was liberally endowed with the qualifications which render the domestic life both comfortable and desirable. During a painful and lingering illness, her mind was serene, and resigned to the will of her heavenly father. Besides a husband and many respectable friends who lament her loss, she has left a family of young children, whose tender age, will doubly experience the loss of an attentive and affectionate parent.

—, after a lingering illness, on the 21st ult. Mr. Joseph North, merchant, of the house of Snowden & North, of Philadelphia.

—, on the 16th ult. at Lititz, in Lancaster county, in the 69th year of her age, Miss Mary Penry. This lady was born in Wales, and came young into this country. Being early impressed with a sense of religion, she retired to Bethlehem in 1757, and afterwards removed to Lititz, where she spent the last thirty years of her life, in the peaceful enjoyment of that happiness which arises from the cultivating and directing a vigorous understanding, and the most benevolent affections to the noblest objects.

—, on the 16th ult. in Philadelphia, Mr. William Wilbart, in the 81st year of his age. He was a respectable member of the Society of Friends.

—, on the 7th ultimo, Mrs. Elizabeth Moffatt, consort of Mr. Archibald Moffat, of Allentown, N. J.
